Phi Phi is a butiful iland. I went there on Wenesday last week. I wanted to clim a mountain on the iland. I tried to catch a boat from Puket, but, gess what? I caut the rong boat!

It wasn't my falt! I asked a foreiner for directions and he told me that the small yello boat was going to Koh Phi Phi. So, I thot I was on the rite boat. But the boat I was on was going to Koh Phangan! I felt so dum!

I got off that boat as quikly as possible! I thot I mite find the rite boat if I asked a Tai person. There was an old man with his doter and she spoke English really well! They told me the rite boat was not yello – it was blu! I found the blu boat. I had to wait haf an our before it left. We set sail for Koh Phi Phi and after to ours I was standing on Ko Phi Phi!

I had a really great day there! I climed the mountian and I saw butiful senery! I had a sanwich at the top of the mountain. I walked back down the mountain and I saw a sine that said "Ferry this way".... It was time to go home!

I cot the boat bak to Puket, but I was sad to leave Koh Phi Phi. Maybe I will go back one day soon! What do you think? Do you like Phi Phi island?
