

Movie Genres

Action
	It is about a protagonist who journeys to epic or distant places to accomplish something.
Animation
	It is a set of regularly presented animated television programs with a common series title, usually related to one another. These episodes typically share the same characters and a basic theme.
Comedy
	It is about a crime that is being committed or was committed
Documentary
	A type of program that helps kids learn their basics to go through school.
Erotica
	It is about magic or supernatural forces, rather than technology, though it often is made to include elements of other genres. It happens to take place in a modern or future era.
Historical

Horror
	It is a television program, in which events center upon a hospital, an ambulance staff, or any medical environment.
Romance
	It is a story about ancient Scandinavian and Germanic history, about early Viking voyages, about migration to Iceland, and of feuds between Icelandic families.
Satire
	They use scientific understanding to explain the universe that it takes place in. It generally includes or is centered on the presumed effects or ramifications of computers or machines; travel through space, time or alternate universes; alien life-forms; genetic engineering; or other such things
Thriller
	Westerns are devoted to telling stories set primarily in the latter half of the 19th century in the American Old West, hence the name.

Movie Genres (Answer Key)

Action	It is similar to adventure, but the protagonist usually takes a risky turn, which leads to desperate situations
Adventure	It is about a protagonist who journeys to epic or distant places to accomplish something.
Animation	It takes use of computer renderings or drawings (or occasionally photos of representational objects, known as stop-motion animation or Claymation) shown in a sequence in order to depict an action or event rather than using the filming of live actors.
Cartoon	It is a set of regularly presented animated television programs with a common series title, usually related to one another. These episodes typically share the same characters and a basic theme.
Comedy	It is a story that tells about a series of funny or comical events, intended to make the audience laugh
Crime	It is about a crime that is being committed or was committed
Documentary	It is made especially for television stations or in case of political and historical documentary subjects in news channels, without the intention of showing it in movie theaters
Educational	A type of program that helps kids learn their basics to go through school.
Erotica	It refers to the presentation in motion pictures of sexuality or eroticism and sex acts, including love scenes.
Fantasy	It is about magic or supernatural forces, rather than technology, though it often is made to include elements of other genres. It happens to take place in a modern or future era.
Historical	A story about a real person or event (Autobiography, Memoire, ...)

Horror	It is told to deliberately scare or frighten the audience, through suspense, violence or shock.
Medical Drama	It is a television program, in which events center upon a hospital, an ambulance staff, or any medical environment.
Romance	It involves chivalry and adventure. In modern writing, a story about character's relationships, or engagements
Saga	It is a story about ancient Scandinavian and Germanic history, about early Viking voyages, about migration to Iceland, and of feuds between Icelandic families.
Satire	Human or individual vices, follies, abuses, or shortcomings are held up to censure by means of ridicule, derision, burlesque, irony, or other methods, ideally with the intent to bring about improvement.
Science Fiction	They use scientific understanding to explain the universe that it takes place in. It generally includes or is centered on the presumed effects or ramifications of computers or machines; travel through space, time or alternate universes; alien life-forms; genetic engineering; or other such things
Thriller	It is a story that is usually a mix of fear and excitement. It has traits from the suspense genre and often from the action, adventure or mystery genres, but the level of terror makes it borderline horror fiction at times as well. It generally has a dark or serious theme, which also makes it similar to drama.
Western	Westerns are devoted to telling stories set primarily in the latter half of the 19th century in the American Old West, hence the name.